

Conditional probability

$P(A | B) = P(A \text{ and } B) / P(B)$, provided $P(B) > 0$.

The conditioning event changes the sample space.

Example: $P(A \text{ and } B) = 0.12$ and $P(B) = 0.30$.

Then $P(A | B) = 0.40$.

Scanned evaluation page

This sentence exists only in the image.

OCR must read it in a later phase.

